VOLUME CIVL---NO 150.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 26, 1905.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

DON'T BE HYPNOTISED.

Hoodwinked, hoodooed, or over-persuaded into accepting a substitute for Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription with its record of nearly 40 years, embracing hundreds of thousands of cures of woman's peculiar ailments. It's the only remedy for women's ills sold by druggists, that is not full of "boozes"—poor whiskey, or bad alcohol.

A guarantee of $1000 is offered that "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, opium or other harmful drug. Keeps in any climate.

"Favorite Prescription" is a powerful invigorating tonic, and imparts strength to the whole system and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble persons, it is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

It's an insult to your intelligence for a dealer to attempt to palm off upon you an alcoholic substitute for this world-famed medicine. You know what you want. It's his business to meet that want. When he urges some substitute, he's thinking of the larger profit he'll make—not of your welfare.

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY. In copies of Medical Advertiser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away 500,000 copies of this invaluable book. This year we shall give away 500,000 copies of this book. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps or for book in stiff paper covers, or 81 stamps for cloth-bound edition.

Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

If out of health, write to old Dr. Pierce. He will send you good, fatherly, professional advice without charge.

These sugar-coated little pills are the smallest, the easiest to take, and the easiest to get down. No griping, no violence to the stomach, no violent action. They are the Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. E. V. Pierce, over 40 years ago. They have been much imitated but never equalled.

They come in vials, always fresh and reliable, a convenient vest-pocket remedy.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpelide is in Giving it a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigorators may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpelide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpelide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

Sold by leading druggists. Send for stamps for sample to The Herpelide Co., Detroit, Mich.

WEAK HEART'S

are caused by Indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of Indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart.

Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol

Dyspepsia Cure

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.

MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

D. KAULE, Nevada, O.

Race Riot in Delaware.

Probably the worst riot that ever happened in Sussex county, Del., occurred at Greenwood Saturday night, in which 200 whites and half as many negroes participated.

The trouble started about 11 o'clock, when three negroes beat into insensibility a half-witted white man employed at Martin H. Fox's sawmill, near Greenwood. The white man was slightly intoxicated and got into an altercation with the negroes. They took advantage of him, and he now lies in a critical condition.

The news soon spread among the whites, and a general fight broke out. Two hundred of them, with clubs, pistols and bottles, began to rid the town of the negroes. Every negro, whether woman or man, found was run out of town, and several pitched battles took place. The porch of a house near the heart of the town was nearly torn down by the fighters.

A dozen negroes who were caught near town were beaten into insensibility by the angry mob. The whole town was aroused and the fighting continued. Several of the whites who were not armed secured beer bottles and threw at the howling mob of negroes. Not until every negro had fled the town was quiet restored, and it came near being resumed yesterday, when scores of negroes flocked to the "different doctors" offices to have their wounds attended to, but cooler heads prevented further trouble. As far as can be learned no one was killed.

France and Germany.

Speculation is rife in Paris regarding the probable purport of Germany's reply to the French note regarding the proposed international conference over Moroccan affairs, which reply has not yet been received. The statement that Germany would refrain from replying before further verbal explanations took place between Premier Rouvier and Prince Radolin, the German Ambassador, is not regarded seriously in well-informed circles, where it is thought probable that an answer will not take place before Wednesday, when the reply from Berlin may reach Paris, but the officials are without definite information on this point. It is alleged that the contents of the reply were given out yesterday, in which Germany requests a clearer statement of the French programme for Moroccan affairs, suggesting that each subject be discussed separately in accordance with the terms of the Madrid convention, the two points principally referred to being coast trading and frontiers, and that should France accept Germany would abandon the idea of the conference. This, however, is regarded as a surmise. Meanwhile public anxiety relative to eventualities, though somewhat abated, is still intense. The press continues to advise patience and confidence in the efforts of the French government to arrive at a pacific settlement.

All Wanted the American Lady.

An amusing hoax was perpetrated at Barcelona Friday, by which 400 young men were made to look supremely foolish. An advertisement appeared in the local newspapers a few days ago to the effect that a young and wealthy American lady desired to meet an elegant young Spanish gentleman with a view to matrimony. Applicants were invited to send their photographs and addresses. More than 400 candidates applied, and each received a letter informing him that he was the accepted suitor, and asking him to meet the advertiser at a farm, situated outside the town, at a certain hour.

The 400 candidates, all dressed in their very best clothes, put in an appearance, and when they found they were being cleverly hoaxed a ludicrous scene ensued. Finally they organized a hostile demonstration, and marched to the advertising office from which the "American lady's" announcement had been dated.

But for the timely arrival of the police the office would have been wrecked by the crestfallen young gallants.

Disappearance of Young Woman.

A special dispatch from Saranac Lake, N. Y., says:

"Great excitement prevails here over the strange disappearance of Miss Rogers, said to be a wealthy Virginian, who came here May 30 with Mr. Willoughby N. Smith, of Baltimore, who says he is her legal representative, and Miss Janney, a nurse, of Washington. Miss Rogers was missed early Saturday morning from her room in the Baker cottage, noted as the home of Robert Louis Stevenson during his stay in the Adirondacks. The window screen was out. The young woman wore only her night robes. Mr. Smith refuses all information except that Miss Rogers came from Virginia, suffered from melancholia and slight lung trouble. An odd feature of the case is that on some dust outside the girl's window were the imprints of two bare left feet. There was no imprint of a right foot.

"Mr. Smith appeared before Justice Strong last night in response to a subpoena. He testified that Miss Rogers was from Leesburg, Va.; that she suffered from acute stomach trouble, and that she had met with some financial reverses."

Shot Woman Five Times.

Katie Hill, a white woman, living in Rosnoke, was shot five times at an early hour yesterday by Stephen N. Gill, a well-known moon-keeper. Gill went to the Hill woman's house after midnight and took offense at the presence of a man whom he found asleep on a sofa in the parlor. The Hill woman threatened to have Gill arrested, and began putting out the lights. Gill, becoming further enraged, drew a revolver and emptied every chamber at the woman, who was in a dimly lighted hallway when the shooting began. One bullet took effect in the side, another in the shoulder and a third shattered the bones in the arm. The fourth and fifth shots lodged in the right and left thigh. The woman is a seriously wounded, but will recover. Gill was captured several hours after the shooting and released on $800 bail.

A Modern Don Juan.

The trial of Michael Mudugno, aged 22, a distant relative of Captain Mudugno, who is on trial at Perugia on the charge of shooting his wife, began at Milan Saturday. Mudugno, after seducing his mistress's daughter, spending her dowry and deserting from the army, posed as the Count Caracciolo, in which disguise he captivated the Duchess To landia Villafiorita, a vaudeville performer known on the stage as Tina Despalla, whose mother caused his arrest, owing to his extortion of money from her.

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle, with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won and by the use of Electric Bitters. In unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." Found a Cure for Dyspepsia.

Mrs. S. Lindsay, of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, who was suffering quite a number of years from dyspepsia and great pains in the stomach, was advised by her druggist to take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. She did so and says, "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion why not take these Tablets, get well and stay well? For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
